

Come Into a
New World
Linnaeus & America

FEBRUARY 15 - JULY 1, 2007
AMERICAN SWEDISH HISTORICAL MUSEUM
Guest Curator, Karen Reeds

CELEBRATE THE 300TH BIRTHDAY
OF THE GREAT SWEDISH SCIENTIST,
CAROLUS LINNAEUS (1707-1778)!

AMERICAN  SWEDISH
HISTORICAL MUSEUM

REQUESTS THE PLEASURE OF YOUR COMPANY
AT THE OPENING RECEPTION OF THE EXHIBITION

Come Into a
New World
Linnaeus & America

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2007, 6:00-8:00 PM

7:15 PM PANEL DISCUSSION: Why Linnaeus matters today

PLEASE RSVP BY FEBRUARY 12 TO ASHM

1900 Pattison Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19145
Five blocks from the Broad Street Line. Free parking.
Phone 215-389-1776 Fax 215-389-7701
Complete list of related programs can be found at www.americanswedish.org

Planning for Come into a New World: Linnaeus and America was supported by a "We the People" Consultation Grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities. The exhibition has been funded by generous gifts from Astra Zeneca, the Barbro Osher Pro Suecia Foundation, the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, Robert Savage, SWEA New Jersey, and The Swedish Council of America.

Images by permission of the Linnean Society of London; Uppsala University Library Department of Manuscript and Music, Leufsta Collection; American Swedish Historical Museum; The Academy of Natural Sciences, Ewell Sale Stewart Library.
Design: Alusiv, Inc. www.alusiv.com