-- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE --

Have a wooly good time!
Join us for a special Toddler Time
Tuesday, April 18, 10:30am – 11:30am
At the American Swedish Historical Museum

Philadelphia, PA- Spring is in the air and that means it's time for sheep to get rid of their heavy wool coats. Wool is an important resource for people in Sweden and this month at Toddler Time kids will follow the adventure of Pelle in the book Pelle's New Suit by Elsa Beskow and discover how the wool from a sheep is made into new clothes. Special guests from What -Knott Farm will bring live sheep to the Museum so children can experience the animals in person!

We are proud to continue to offer Toddler Time, with its educational and family fun programs through 2017! Toddler Time is a program designed for children ages 18 months to 4 years old. Each session will help young minds grow through interactive stories, engaging hands on activities and valuable social interaction. Children will explore art, science, and literature in the unique and positive child centered learning environment of the American Swedish Historical Museum.

Registration is free for museum member children and $5 for non-member children. There is no additional charge for accompanying caregivers. To register or for more information, call the museum at 215. 389. 1776, register online at americanswedish.org/calendar.htm or e-mail education@americanswedish.org.
