Reminisce over children’s classic stories with the whole family at ASHM!
Book Fair & Family Fun Day
Sunday October 11th, 2020 from 12:00pm- 3:30pm

Philadelphia, PA- To celebrate our newest exhibition highlighting Swedish illustrator Gustav Tenggren, ASHM is hosting a Book Fair and Family Fun Day! This is an outdoor event on the Museum's terrace with plenty of space for physical distancing. Each child attending will receive a free Golden Book! Admission is free for the Book Fair and museum.

Activities include craft stations and a story corner where young readers can build literacy skills by reading The Poky Little Puppy to dogs from the Seeing Eye Puppy Raising Program: Future Service Dogs! The Museum's Auxiliary Club will be selling fall food treats at a socially distanced outdoor seating area for an afternoon snack.

This is the perfect opportunity to support local independent bookstores and black owned businesses in Philadelphia.

Book Fair vendors include:

Amalgam Comics & Coffee House
A Novel Idea
Hakim’s Bookstore
Main Point Books
Swedish Books from the ASHM Midsommarklubben

The American Swedish Historical Museum is located in scenic FDR Park at 1900 Pattison Avenue in South Philadelphia near the Sports Complex. Plenty of free parking is available. For those taking public transportation, the Broad Street Subway’s AT&T/Pattison Avenue stop is within walking distance or SEPTA’s Route 17 (Naval Base) can bring you right to the Museum.
