SmörgåsBeer in Your Backyard!
Thursday, July 29th 7:00-8:30 pm

Philadelphia, PA – Each July, the American Swedish Historical Museum hosts SmörgåsBeer, which brings people together to experience local and international beers and enjoy Scandinavian food. This event will be virtual again this year as SmörgåsBeer in Your Backyard! So, get together with friends and relax at home for this fun filled evening of games, music, and a live Zoom Tutored Tasting experience!

Brew Masters and representatives from select companies will discuss their brands, flavors, and inspiration in real time as you sample. Tickets to the event come with an event bag which includes a six pack of assorted beverages, two souvenir SmörgåsBeer tasting glasses, an assortment from Swedish candy, and a Scandinavian pub trivia game, all in a reusable Museum tote bag!

Tickets are $45 for ASHM members, $50 for non-members. You must be 21 or older to purchase this event opportunity. A valid ID must be shown upon pick up or delivery of event bag. Call 215-389-1776 or visit <https://www.americanswedish.org/events/smorgasbeer-your-backyard-0> for more information and to purchase tickets.

The American Swedish Historical Museum is located in scenic FDR Park at 1900 Pattison Avenue in South Philadelphia near the Sports Complex. Plenty of free parking is available. For those taking public transportation, the Broad Street Subway's AT&T/Pattison Avenue stop is within walking distance or SEPTA's Route 17 (Naval Base) can bring you right to the Museum.
