– FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE –

Enjoy an evening with Swedish siren, Sofia Talvik! July 6, 2023, 6:00 - 7:30 pm

Join us for an intimate musical evening with Sofia Talvik. Unmistakably Nordic in flavor, Sofia Talvik could be described as a North Sea siren blending sparkle and melancholy, creating a special niche of folk music. Her delicate original compositions are warmly performed, showing off Sofia's angelic voice enhanced only by a tasteful mix of harmonies and acoustic guitar.

Food and bar will be available for purchase at 6 pm, and the performance is from 6:30 – 7:30 pm in the Museum's Terrace Tent. Tickets are $10 for museum members and $15 for nonmembers, pre-registration is appreciated but tickets will be available at the door.

About ASHM:

Visit the American Swedish Historical Museum to learn the forgotten history of Swedes in Philadelphia. Built in 1926 during the sesquicentennial, the museum's unique interior is divided into a dozen galleries designed to highlight Scandinavian influences in America. The galleries explore a range of topics including the New Sweden Colony, women's history, scientific innovations, and Swedish craft arts such as glass making and woodworking. ASHM hosts a variety of programs from Swedish holiday celebrations like Midsommarfest and Lucia, to history lectures, an ABBA Dance Party, virtual tours, and family programs like Toddler Time.

The mission of the ASHM is to welcome all people to explore cultural identity through the story of Swedes and Scandinavians in America. ASHM is a community dedicated to preserving and interpreting material culture, and is alive with celebrations, exhibitions, and learning experiences. No matter your age or interests, ASHM has something for you! Visit our website www.americanswedish.org to learn more.
